

addresses in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Applicants must use the correct postal zip code designated for their native region (see addresses below). Entries must be mailed in a regular letter or business-size envelope with the applicant's native country, full name, mailing address, and country of residence typed or clearly printed in the English alphabet in the upper left-hand corner of the envelope. Postcards are not acceptable.

Only one entry for each applicant may be submitted during the registration period. Duplicate or multiple entries will disqualify individuals from registration for this program. Entries received before or after the specified registration dates regardless of when they are postmarked and entries sent to an address other than one of those indicated below are void. All mail received during the registration period will be individually numbered and entries will be selected at random by computer regardless of time of receipt during the mail-in period.

Where Should Entries Be Sent?

Note Carefully the Importance of Using the Correct Postal ZIP Code for Each Region.

Is It Necessary To Use an Outside Attorney or Consultant?

The decision to hire an attorney or consultant is entirely up to the applicant. Procedures for entering the Diversity Lottery can be completed without assistance following simple instructions. However, if applicants prefer to use outside assistance, that is their choice. There are many legitimate attorneys and immigration consultants assisting applicants for reasonable fees, or in some cases for free. Unfortunately, there are other persons who are charging exorbitant rates and making unrealistic claims. The selection of winners is made at random and no outside service can improve an applicant's chances of being chosen or guarantee an entry will win. Any service that claims it can improve an applicant's odds would be promising something it cannot deliver.

Persons who think they have been cheated by a U.S. company or consultant in connection with the Diversity Visa Lottery may wish to contact their local consumer affairs office or the National Fraud Information Center at 1-800-876-7060. The U.S. Department of State has no authority to investigate complaints against businesses in the United States.

How Will Winners Be Notified?

Only successful registrants will be notified by mail at the address listed on their entry. The notifications will be sent to the winners no later than July 1, 1996 along with instructions on how to apply for an immigrant visa. Applicants must meet all eligibility requirements under U.S. law to be issued a visa.

Being selected as a winner in the DV Lottery does not automatically guarantee being issued a visa because the number of applications selected is greater than the number of immigrant visas available. Those selected will, therefore, need to act on their immigrant visa applications quickly. Once the total 55,000 visas have been issued, the DV Program for Fiscal Year 1997 will end.

A visa lottery hotline has been set up to provide additional information on the DV-97 Program. The 24-hour number is (202) 663-1600. Printed information will also be available by FAX by dialing (202) 647-3000 (Code 1103) from a FAX phone, or may be obtained from U.S. Embassies and Consulates overseas.

Dated: January 17, 1996.

Mary A. Ryan,

Assistant Secretary for Consular Affairs.
